

T H E Argentina Announcer

◆ The work continues here in Pergamino and elsewhere due in great part to your prayers for our family and this ministry! Please continue to pray. God is listening and we are truly blessed by it!

◆ Please pray for Señor Téves, a man I was able to share the gospel with the other day. He did not get saved but was burdened by what I shared with him. Pray for him and his salvation and that God will use what I shared with him. He can't read so it was useless to leave a tract with him.

◆ In October I attended a preaching conference with about 20 national pastors present. While there I was able to finally meet pastor Lima, he's the one that I sent some boxes of tracts and gospel literature to a couple of months ago. He was so grateful for what I sent him. He said that there are a dozen or more small independent baptist churches up in that remote part of the country and he distributed the literature I sent him to each church. It's such a remote area that the pastors and people don't have access to Bibles or tracts. He also said that the people were so delighted and blessed with the materials that they received. Thank the Lord that I had these materials available to send him! We thank you for supporting us, which enables us to pay for the shipping to get these things to that part of the world! The accompanying photo is one of several that pastor Lima gave me.

◆ Let me tell you about Fernando. When I arrived at the preaching conference in October he approached me and gave me a big hug asking if I remembered him; I had to say no I didn't. He told me many years ago he attended a Bible Institute class I taught on "Charismatics, Spiritual Gifts, and the Bible" in another church in northern Argentina. While not a member of the church, a friend had invited him. He also said that he had been attending a Pentecostal church at that time. After the first night he was outright angry with me and determined to come the next night armed with a list of verses to "expose to the class how wrong I was". During the next session, without my knowing, I used those same verses while comparing scripture with scripture, and he saw how wrong he had been. He sat through the rest of the classes. He went on to tell me that after that week, he repented of his sins, got saved, and joined the Baptist church where I was teaching. Ever since he has been a faithful member and is currently serving in the church. PRAISE GOD! What a blessing to my heart to know the rest of the story!

◆ We appreciate your faithful prayers and support of this ministry.
